Convention Rules!

You might think this is the place where we tell you that the convention rules, but actually it is about the guidelines to follow at the con. It's amazing, yes, but a small convention can have rules. The rules are: be considerate of the hotel, other attendees, and our staff. Other than that, have fun! To be more specific: pay your registration fee, don't damage the games, be friendly, don't be too loud, don't be a dink, no dangerous weapons, and don't break the law.
